NOTICE

RE: Febb Burn Banquet and Fundraiser rescheduled.

It has happened again—our celebration has been rescheduled due to the continuing pandemic! On May 24, 2022, we will celebrate outdoors (with a tent and Pavilion) where we can safely gather.

We will enjoy our immersive evening, including, but not limited to, our Art Show, Auction, Re-enactors, Music, Social Hour, Dinner, Re-enactment of the volatile, fiery, 1920’s Tennessee Senate Debate on the Woman Suffrage Amendment, and more. Space is limited so don’t wait.

Tickets and sponsorship opportunities are available at suffragecoalition.org We ask that all participants be vaccinated for COVID 19 and boosted, if eligible. Masks may be required, depending on the conditions at that time. COVID protocols will be updated on the website as required as we get closer to the date.

Come be a part of the living history of Woman Suffrage. During the cocktail hour (5:30-6:30) mix and mingle with Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Alice Paul, and other important suffragists. Take advantage of photo ops with Susan B. Anthony, Lizzie Crozier French, Frankie Pierce, Febb Burn and other change makers.

The Suffrage Coalition, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) dedicated to locating and preserving the history of woman suffrage.
Come ready to bid on beautiful and fun silent auction items—all for a good cause (to support the ongoing efforts of the Suffrage Coalition to locate and preserve the history of Woman Suffrage, especially the Tennessee history.

As a special treat we will have a showing of the beautiful suffrage art work, sculpture, fiber art and much more by the talented Mary Ruden.

Enjoy a dinner prepared with an eye to the recipes of the suffragists as presented in the cookbooks they sold to raise funds for the cause.

Travel back to August 13, 1920 and listen in as the Tennessee Senate debates the hotly controversial motion to ratify the Nineteenth Amendment. Hear the harsh and cruel diatribe of Senator Candler (portrayed by Dennis Francis), whose words inspired Febb Burn to write the famous letter that persuaded her son to switch his vote and make Tennessee the Perfect 36. Hear the words of the Senators who defended suffrage (portrayed by Marshall Stair).

Get a sneak preview of some of the songs for Candace Corrigan’s new Musical “A Vote of Her Own” which will premier in 2022.
